INTERNSHIP

Front End Development, IBM

2023  virtual

During college, I was able to land in web design internship at [IBM]. This internship has been an amazing experience so far. I learned about the different aspects of web design, such as HTML, CSS, and JavaScript. I also learned about the importance of user experience and user interface design. And I have learned so much about web design and web development. I have also had the opportunity to work on a project (Portfolio).
